Mission/Description: The Cheyenne and Arapaho Domestic Violence Program works to provide services and assistance to tribal members in Oklahoma who are domestic violence survivors. Assistance is also provided to other Native American domestic violence survivors living in the service area. The advocates help our clients find the assistance and services needed while working to ensure their safety from future incidents and safeguarding their confidentiality. The Domestic Violence program provides a trained, multi-disciplinary team that works with law enforcement, other tribal agencies, and state agencies that receive DV/SA referrals of tribal members. This allows us to manage any issues the program may face while working to better serve Native Americans in the service area as well as tribal members in the state of Oklahoma.

»Victim Advocacy«

Confidential advocacy for survivors of sexual assault, sex trafficking, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence, including 24hrs/7days a week crisis intervention and support. Each survivor will receive emotional support and resources both to Tribal programs and local community programs. Advocacy can be provided at hospitals, police stations, throughout the legal system and in the community. The program also serves as a resource center to the community by offering educational information and referrals as needed.

»Court Advocacy«

Helps assist survivors who are in need of filing an emergency protective order as well as assist the survivor with ongoing Domestic violence related court appearances.

»Housing and Utility«
Assistance

Assistance can be provided to survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, sex trafficking, dating violence or stalking.

Any assistance is based on availability of funding and a demonstrated need. To qualify for assistance you must complete an intake and meet with an advocate to determine eligibility.

»Referral Assistance «

Assists with providing community resources to those who are in need of services that the Absentee Shawnee Tribe Domestic Violence Program does not provide.

»Shelter Placement«
Assistance

The AST DV program advocates provide assistance in locating emergency housing/shelter for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, sex trafficking, dating violence, or stalking. The AST DV program collaborates with domestic violence shelters in Oklahoma to offer safe housing options. If you are in need of emergency shelter you may contact our office for assistance and a list of local domestic violence shelters.

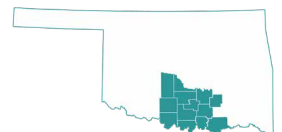

»Community Outreach«

The AST DV staff participates in community events to provide awareness to Tribal and non-Tribal communities regarding our program and the services we provide to those who experience domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence and stalking incidents.

SAC AND FOX
 NATION DIVISION FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME

The Sac and Fox Nation Division for Victims of Crime works with individuals whose lives have been impacted by crime and strives to help victims feel safe, supported and informed.

Assistance provided is based on individual need and must be directly related to victimization. We ensure that you are safe and that any information you provide us is secure. Below are some of the services we provide:

Our Advocate(s) provide 24/7 crisis response in emergency situations. We strive to provide immediate safety, resources necessary for the victims' healing and to walk beside the survivor through their journey, from the onset of the crime to their restoration. While there are concerns regarding privacy within tribal communities, our program ensures the protection of client confidentiality. This is your story and we will respect who, if anyone, you want us to share it with.

- Crisis needs transportation
- Personal Advocacy/Support
- Safety Planning
- Assistance in Emergency Shelter
- Filing Protective Orders (Tribal & State)
- Counseling Referrals
- Relocation Assistance
- Court Advocacy
- Referral to Legal Services
- Coordination efforts with other programs
- Accompaniment & referral for SANE exam
- Assistance with applying for State/Federal Victims Compensation Claims
- Other referrals to fit needs of Client

We are a tribal department that serves all crime victims within our traditional boundaries which encompasses parts of Pottawatomie, Lincoln, and Payne counties. We also serve Sac and Fox tribal members living outside our traditional boundaries, who have fallen victim to crime, by arranging for emergency transportation to bring them back within our boundaries and to their safety net.

Crisis Line Procedures

When we answer the Crisis Line, we simply say "Hello" for your safety. The operator will not identify the line as a Family Violence Crisis Line. If you ask the operator if you have called the crisis line, she will reply with "May I help you?" This is to prevent abusers from checking your call log to find out if the call has been placed, which could put you in danger.

If our Crisis Operator is on the line with another crisis call you will receive a call back if you leave a message stating it is safe to call back. Please be advised that for security reasons, the number appearing on your caller ID, will be different than the crisis line number you called.

If you are unable to speak without being heard by your abuser, please feel free to text us. Again, let us know that it is safe to text you back. We have no way of knowing if your abuser is monitoring your phone.

Legal Services

We will assist with referrals to Legal Aid Services of Oklahoma for clients. Legal aid can assist with divorce, domestic violence, guardianship, etc.

Shelter Services

24-hours a day, 7 days a week shelter for victims of family/domestic violence in our service area. Our shelter does not allow the minor children (of all ages and gender) of our victims to accompany them during their stay. Shelter guest will be provided with daily activities, traditional healing, and activities to increase independent living capabilities and improve self-esteem. If we are not capable to accommodate your shelter stay we will try to find an alternative solution.

Court Advocacy

Advocates will go over court procedures and protocols prior to any court date. If scheduling allows, an Advocate will accompany you to the hearings. If you need special arrangements made in order to attend court, like a safe place or an escort to and from your car please notify your Advocate prior to the court date.

Our Services

Protective Orders

We assist victims with both tribal and district protective order petition assistance. We will assist with filling out the petition, filing it with the court, amendments, and accompanying you to hearings. If your case is not family violence or intimate partner violence-related, you may need to attach a police report or a police report number to your petition.

Transportation

We can assist with transportation to receive shelter services if you have no other transportation. For the safety of our staff, you must be in a safe place, well-lit, and public place. If you are staying in the shelter we will possibly be able to assist with transportation to appointments, job searches, housing searches, schooling, etc. If you have personal transportation we can assist with gas vouchers when available.

Who we are

We empower those seeking our services with the tools they need to rebuild their lives and become the strong individuals they were created to be; to effect social change through outreach and education in order to put an end to inter-generational violence; and to partner with state, county, and tribal court systems and law enforcement to hold perpetrators accountable for their crimes.

1

Advocates are available to meet with clients to work on setting goals, achieving goals, answering questions, and reviewing your service plans. All clients may request referrals for counseling, medical care, housing, or other services.

All services who fall into the categories of family violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, or human sex trafficking will be offered a safety plan. Based on your situation, we may be able to provide safety equipment such as personal alarms, pepper spray, new doorknobs/deadbolts, or specialist to provide home based and parent aid services.

We are certified application assistants for the State of Oklahoma Confidential Address Program.

Assistance with completing courses on various classes including the CED program. We can provide a remote-access room and play area for you to complete the course.

Advocates can also assist you with health care cost, comfort kits, court-related filing fees, and obtaining or replacing forms of identification, and other possible services.

Our Advocates attempt to attend all court hearings whether they are protective order, criminal, or family and domestic hearings. Assistance with applying and registering for VINE and Oklahoma Crime Compensation.

Sexual Assault

A Sexual Assault Advocate can provide victims of sexual assault and affected family members with protective orders, transportation, shelter services (IPV or Family Violence related), victim advocacy, court advocacy, legal services, counseling, cultural supplies, crisis intervention, self-care assistance, relocation assistance, pregnancy test, STI and HIV tests, emergency contraceptive, and access to a private

Service Area

We serve any victim that meets our guidelines of domestic violence, family violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human sex trafficking on the Osage Reservation (Osage County) regardless of ethnicity; any Native residing in Oklahoma or Kansas; and any Osage victim regardless of where they reside.

Supporting a Survivor

Believe Them!

Be present and let them know you want to support them.

Listen!

Let them talk, do not interrupt

Do not Judge!

Reassure them that they are not to blame.

Respect Personal Space!

Do not initiate touching, or hugging.

Be Patient!

Every person has a different pace through the healing process.

Let your loved one control who knows!

Keep the information shared between the two of you private.

Recognizing Domestic Violence

Domestic violence isn't an argument every once in awhile or a fight that got out of control; it is a pattern of violent behavior that one person uses to exert power and control over another. It can happen to anyone regardless of race, age, religion, level of education, economic background or sexual orientation. Abuse isn't always physical: it can also be verbal, emotional, financial, sexual or even spiritual.

If you are sexually assaulted:

- Go to a safe place.
- Tell someone you trust.
- Don't change clothes, wash or douche.
 - taking these steps may destroy evidence should you decided to press charges
- Get medical attention. There could be internal injuries, a possibility of pregnancy, or venereal disease.
- You do NOT have to report to law enforcement if you seek medical attention.

What is Sexual Assault?

Sexual Assault is any type of sexual activity or contact that you did not consent to. It can happen through physical force or threat of force, including rape and sexual coercion.

What is Sex Trafficking?

Sex trafficking is the recruitment,
harboring, transportation, provision,
obtaining, patronizing, or soliciting of a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act in which a commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such act has not attained 18 years of age

WE BELIEVE YOU!

Sexual Assault is any unwanted,
coerced, or forced sexual contact.
YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY NO AT ANY TIME!

According to the US Department of Justice Violence Against American Indian and Alaskan Native Women and Men have the highest rate of:

- Violent crime victimization.
- Stalking, which is 2 1/2 times higher than other populations.
- Homicide is the 3rd leading cause of death for Indian women.
- More than 55,000 American Indian/Alaska Native Women will be sexually assaulted in her life.
- 87% of sexual assaults are perpetrated by non-Indian men.
- Most sexual assaults happen by someone close to you, a friend or family member.
- According to the FBI, less than 2% of sexual assaults reports are false.

CONSENT is the key factor in determining if a sexual act is criminal

WARNING SIGNS OF ABUSE

Because relationships exist on a spectrum, it can be hard to tell when a behavior crosses the line from healthy to unhealthy, or even abusive.

- Checking your cell phone or email without permission
- Constantly putting you down
- Extreme jealousy/insecurity
- Explosive temper
- Isolating you from family and friends
- Making false accusations
- Mood swings
- Physically hurting you in any way
- Possessiveness
- Telling you what to do

If you think you or a friend might be in an abusive relationship, talk to an advocate.

Don't be afraid to get help.

WHAT IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic violence (or family violence) is an abusive, violent, forceful or threatening act against another person with whom the perpetrator has an intimate relationship. Domestic violence may take the form of physical violence or assault but may also be verbal abuse, emotional abuse, financial abuse (controlling funds), sexual abuse or stalking.

Domestic violence may also be described as a pattern of behavior in which one person in the relationship attempts to gain power over his or her partner through fear, intimidation and abuse.

Some examples of domestic violence are:

- Extreme jealousy, insecurity or possessiveness
- Explosive temper or mood swings
- Isolation from family and friends
- Put-downs, false accusations or possessiveness

QUICK FACTS

- Native women are more victimized than any other U.S. segment (64% of Indian Women)
- 34% of Indian women will be sexually assaulted in their lifetime

HOW YOU CAN GET HELP

If you think you or a friend may be in an abusive relationship, or have recently fled an abusive relationship, talk to an advocate. Don't be afraid to get help.

Call 1-800-522-6170 to speak to a Family Violence Prevention social worker. Family Violence Prevention workers are located throughout the Choctaw Nation Reservation.

Do you qualify for assistance?

- Current or recent survivor of intimate partner domestic violence (intimate partner is defined as spouse, significant other or partner)
- Resides within the Choctaw Nation Reservation
- Services are available to Non-Native American victims as well as Native American victims (not required to be Native American)
- Services available regardless of race, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity (or expression), religion, national origin, age, disability, as well as to others from diverse backgrounds

Project HOUSE has a coordinated system of care that assists victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking by helping them stabilize housing and other day-to-day support so they can focus on reclaiming their lives. The Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma maintains HOUSE to assist Native American victims in overcoming challenges and reclaiming their lives through a holistic, victim-centered program.

This program provides a broad range of services such as safety and life planning, transportation, legal advocacy, education guidance, housing assistance, group counseling, life skill enhancement, transitional living expenses, parenting guidance, financial and employment counseling.

HOUSE also serves family and household members of victims and those collaterally affected by the victimization through a multitude of services ranging from housing assistance to culturally attuned counseling. Advocates work with each victim to develop a specific safety and long-term life plan to help them achieve a stable, successful future. Advocates provide specific activities for victims to move them along their life plan, including life skills training (how to manage a household on a budget), basic computer and internet training, related guidance in obtaining a job, writing a resume, filling out applications and more. Trainings on etiquette, professionalism and how to communicate while at work are also available.

Mission/Description:	Domestic violence and sexual assault against women is rapidly growing in rural areas. With the increase of these crimes, it is the mission of our program to bring awareness to this problem and to help women and children break away from violent situations. By being educated about these crimes, we as a community and a Tribe can make a difference for our native people in hopes that the next generation will be able to revert to the traditional lifestyle where native women were considered the sacred ones.

WHAT IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE?

Domestic Violence is a pattern of abusive behaviors used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another partner in an intimate relationship. Domestic violence is not just Physical abuse, it can be Sexual Abuse, Emotional Abuse, Verbal Abuse, Financial Abuse, Social Abuse and more.

WHAT IS SEXUAL ASSAULT?

It is any type of sexual activity or contact that was forced or that you did not consent to. It can happen with strangers, friends and committed partners.

WHAT IS STALKING?

It is unwanted or repeated surveillance by an individual or group towards another person. Stalking behaviors are interrelated to harassment and intimidation and may include following the victim or monitoring the victim.

DOES YOUR PARTNER:

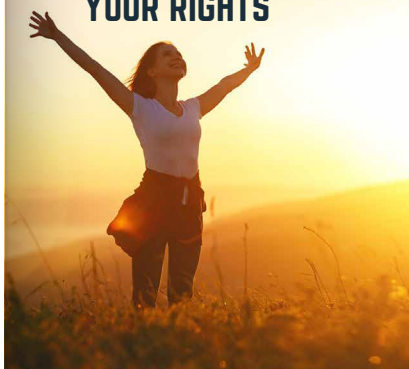

- Threaten to hurt you or other people you care about?
- Hit, kick, punch, push, choke or use any other kind of physical force against you?
- Constantly criticize or blame you for everything that goes wrong?
- Control your access to money?
- Control the decision-making in your relationship?
- Control your time, or your actions?
- Put you down, call you names, make you feel like you are crazy?
- Destroy your property or abuse your pets?
- Threaten to hurt you or commit suicide if you leave the relationship?
- Force or coerce you to have sex when you don't want to?
- Force or coerce you to do things you don't want to?

If you have answered "yes" to any of these questions, you may be in a domestic violence relationship.

You are not alone. There is free and confidential help available to you.

If you would like to talk to someone please contact our Program.

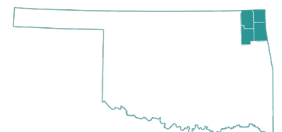

YOUR RIGHTS

1. The right to request that charges be pressed against your assailant.
2. The right to request protection from any harm or threat of harm arising out of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts as far as facilities are available and to be provided with information on the level of protection available.
3. The right to be informed of financial assistance and other social services available as a result of being a victim, including information on how to apply for the assistance and services.
4. The right to file a petition for a protective order or, when the domestic abuse occurs when the court is not open for business, to request an emergency temporary protective order; and,
5. The right to apply for Victim's Compensation under the Victim's Compensation Act.
